AS FEATURED IN BUSINESS INSIDER

2026 Rising Stars of Real Estate

Steven Rivera leads Team Rivera at Keller Williams Points North. Business Insider named him to its 2026 Rising Stars of Real Estate list. Licensed in 2018, he has invested in real estate for more than a decade and runs his team on a simple rule: high-tech back office, handshake front office. He serves the Gold Coast and North Shore of Long Island from 523 Lake Avenue, St. James.

> "As a younger agent, I do not try to win on years in the business. I win on responsiveness, transparency, and a level of service clients do not expect: High-tech back office, handshake front office."
